BEHIND NOMA OUR VERY OWN IDOL

uMgungundlovu District Municipality in partnership with uMsunduzi municipality conducted a 'vote 4 Noma' campaign at the Carbineers Garden from 12:00 noon today in support of the Pietermaritzburg very own Idols contestant Noma khumalo

The honourable Mayor of uMsunduzi Cllr Themba Njilo alongside uMgungundlovu District Municipality Chief Whip Cllr Dan Ndlela graced the event and gave words of encouragement and support to Noma Khumalo as she is now in the Top 2.

Free Wi-Fi was available for all citizens in order to download the WeChat app and vote for Noma.

The khumalo family also present gave words of thanks to the citizens in being part of their daughters journey through idols, from the beginning till now.

Noma couldn't come through to the activation as she is jet setting throughout the country on the Idols Top2 media tour. However she sent her video thanking all the supporters who've been with her on this journey and believing in her talent

Her local band Acqoustic Assassins alongside the District's local artists entertained the crowds and showed their support and encouraged citizens to vote for Noma.

Voting lines close on Thursday 24 November at 22:00pm
